Internship-Externship Program

Tuesday, January 1, 2008 • The Armenian National Committee-Western Region is now accepting applications for the 2008 Summer Session of its Internship-Externship Program (IEP).

Why Participate in the ANC-WR IEP?

This is a selective and intensive, ten week program that features:

- a weekly lecture series featuring ANC leadership, specialists from the community, and government officials
- joint projects with fellow interns as well as an individual, session project
- an in-depth introduction to the ANC, its mission, goals, and the organization
- networking with fellow ANC activists, leadership, and friends

Participants will:

- gain confidence and pride through independent accomplishment
- expand communication and presentation skills
- exercise management and teamwork skills
- make connections with individuals in government affairs, public service, and public relations
- increase their knowledge of the political arena and advocacy techniques

What Internships and Externships are Available?

The ANC-WR will be accepting a few, highly qualified individuals to work within the Western Region office on high priority projects integral to the operations, resources, and outreach of its Armenian American advocacy efforts. Applicants will be placed in one of the following areas of specialization:

- Administration and Development – A great opportunity for a student in business interested in learning the "nuts & bolts" of a public affairs organization. The Administrative and Development Assistant intern handles office organization, phone communication and administrative tasks, as well as supporting the board in development initiatives. A motivated intern will learn the mechanics of operating a public affairs organization as well as non-profit sector fundraising.
- Public and Media Relations – Interns will learn how to and be responsible for generating press (both print and broadcast) and promoting Armenian National Committee work among policy makers and the public. An interest in press work and/or marketing is a plus. Strong writing and computer skills are a positive.
- Community and Government Affairs – Applicants should have an introductory knowledge of domestic and foreign policy, and strong computer skills. Additionally, applicants should be confident public speakers with professional attitudes as well as good self-motivation, and should be seeking coalition-building skills. Interns will work with the regional office in maintaining relations with governmental offices and pursuing policy Armenian National Committee policy initiatives. Background in campus or community organizing a plus
- Genocide Education Project – A joint program externship in coordination with the Genocide Education Project (www.genocideeducation.org), externs will work with GenEd in organizing educational workshops on teaching the about the Armenian Genocide and other genocide in high school classrooms. The externship is a great opportunity for students with a background in education or the social sciences.
- Foundation for Economic Development – A joint program externship in coordination with the Foundation for Economic Development (FED), a non-profit organization which seeks to promote trade and economic relations between the United States and the Republic of Armenia. A strong program for applicants interested in international trade and economics, externs will work with the FED board to help facilitate networking between United States and Armenian enterprises as well as organize programs to this end.
- Armenian National Committee-Professional Network – A joint program externship in coordination with the ANC-PN, an organization that encourages the emergence of an educated and politically active community of Armenian American professionals. Externs support the ANC-PN executive committee in its efforts to organize programming initiatives such as the ANC-PN's annual trip to Armenia, professional spotlight program, as well as various professional development, educational, and charitable social events.
- Sister City Associations – A joint program externship in coordination with various sister city associations between US cities and cities in the Republic of Armenia. Externs support their assigned association's efforts to promote bi-lateral ties between the US and Armenia. Tasks will range from event planning to promotional work and program development, depending on assignments. Strong writing and computer skills are a plus.

Internship-Externship Program

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

Weekly Meetings and Blogging

Each week the IEP coordinator will meet with the interns and externs to discuss the progress on their individual and group projects as well as goals for each in the coming week. Additionally, IEP participants will blog bi-weekly about their experience in the program as well as Armenian American advocacy issues.

Lecture Series, Workshops, Media Review Seminars, and Special Events

Every week the IEP participants will attend a lecture series or workshop, partake in a media review seminar, or take part in a special event throughout the course of the fourteen week program.

The lecture series is designed to introduce participants to the ANC and the environment in which it operates its accomplishments, and educate them on issues of concern to the community.

The workshops are designed to teach participants practical, general professional skills.

The media review seminar is designed to provide an interactive environment in which they may explore issues covered in the press and analyze the impact on issues advocated by the ANC (i.e. understanding ANC issues in the broader scope of the world stage).

During the course of the session, the IEP participants will have the opportunity to partake in various special events and programs ranging from attending conferences and ANC events to visiting media offices and joining ANC-WR staff for meetings with public officials.

Translational Education Project

The TEP component to the program provides an opportunity for the participants to work together as a team to prepare a presentation about the ANC and Armenian American advocacy issues that will be presented to high school students.

Final Presentation and Closing Reception

Each program participants will summarize his/her experience in the program by preparing a presentation regarding his/her projects and accomplishments as IEP participants. The closing reception is attended by the ANC-WR Board of Directors and staff, former ANC interns, and the local ANC leadership.
